

ACKNOWLEDGMENT TO REQUESTER

TO: David Sirota, International Business Times
26366-96256048@requests.muckrock.com
FROM: Office of the Governor of Hawaii
GovOffice.UIPA@hawaii.gov

DATE REQUEST RECEIVED: 6/25/19

DATE OF ACKNOWLEDGEMENT: 7/16/19

GOVERNMENT RECORDS YOU REQUESTED: (attach copy of request or provide brief description below)

See attached request.

This acknowledgment is provided in accordance with section 2-71-13, Hawaii Administrative Rules ("HAR"), because the following extenuating circumstance(s) exist:

- ☐ Agency must consult with another person to determine whether the record is exempt from disclosure under chapter 92F, HRS.
- ☒ Request requires extensive agency efforts to search, review, or segregate the records, or otherwise prepare the records for inspection or copying.
- ☒ Agency requires additional time to respond to the request in order to avoid an unreasonable interference with its other statutory duties and functions.
- ☐ A natural disaster or other situation beyond the agency's control prevents the agency from sending a notice or responding to the request within ten business days.

Due to these extenuating circumstances, the agency will send you the written notice required by section 2-71-14, HAR, within a reasonable time not to exceed twenty business days following the date when the agency received your request. Among other things, this notice will inform you whether the agency intends (1) to disclose the record; (2) to deny access to all or part of the information in the requested record, identifying the portions that will not be disclosed and justifying the nondisclosure; or (3) that the agency is unable to disclose the record for the reasons given. The notice will also include the agency's good faith estimate of all fees that will be charged to the requester under section 2-71-19, HAR and the amount of prepayment required by the agency, if any.

If the agency is providing access to records, the agency will then:

- (1) Disclose the requested records within five business days after providing notice or, when applicable, after receiving a prepayment as provided for under section 2-71-19, HAR;
- or
- (2) Disclose the requested records in increments because the requested records are voluminous. See HAR § 2-71-15. Each increment will be disclosed within twenty business days after either (A) the prior incremental disclosure (if one prepayment of fees is required and received) or (B) receipt of each incremental prepayment required.

For questions about this acknowledgment, please contact the person named above. Questions regarding compliance with the UIPA may be directed to the Office of Information Practices at 808-586-1400 or oip@hawaii.gov.
